

SALIM MALIWANGA

Academics, Head

QUALIFICATIONS

- Hamburg University of Technology (Germany)
Master in Business Administration (Logistics Management)
- University of Leicester (England)
Master in Business Administration (Maritime Management)

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Salim is responsible for overseeing academic development and distribution as well as monitoring student's progression and their learning growth.

He has worked in the varied industries for the last 12 years ranging from shipping , communication, logistics and he has been involved with IEP since 2009 years.

In his working career he has been in charge of sales, logistics, consultancy and business development in Africa, Europe and here in Asia. With his working expertise he is able to bring to the school relevant exposure to real life sales and business development strategies.

He has lectured in supply chain and logistics management, business management, business communication. His present interest includes economics

Salim intends to pursuing his PhD. Islamic Banking and Finance later the year 2011